In today's Gospel, the lawyer's question to Jesus is one of the deep questions about life, as to how one can inherit eternal life.

Jesus does not spoon-feed the lawyer with the answer, but challenges him to draw an answer based on his knowledge of the law. The lawyer gives the perfect answer by quoting from Deuteronomy about loving God and from Leviticus about loving one's neighbour as oneself. "Do this and you will live"

Jesus tells the lawyer.

Jesus does not tell the lawyer that he is already saved simply because he could quote the Scriptures. Knowledge and acting on that knowledge are two different things. Jesus then tells a parable to illustrate the importance of concrete action. The protagonist in the parable is a Samaritan; he is a religious and social outcast to the Jews. The other characters in the parable, a Priest and a Levite are considered the respectable members of society. Sadly the Priest and Levite fail to help the person lying on the road.

Jesus then raised the very pertinent question to the lawyer "Which of these three do you think proved to be the neighbour to the man lying on the road ?"

With some difficulty, the lawyer has to admit that it was the Samaritan who was the neighbour to the victim on the road.

Jesus then tells the lawyer, to go and do the same .

" Love your neighbour "

SCRIPTURE READINGS

Entrance Antiphon

As for me, in justice I shall behold your face; I shall be filled with the vision of your glory

First Reading Deuteronomy 30:10-14

A reading from the book of Deuteronomy Moses said to the people: 'Obey the voice of the Lord your God, keeping those commandments and laws of his that are written in the Book of this Law, and you shall return to the Lord your God with all your heart and soul.

'For this Law that I enjoin on you today is not beyond your strength or beyond your reach. It is not in heaven, so that you need to wonder, "Who will go up to heaven for us and bring it down to us, so that we may hear it and keep it?" Nor is it beyond the seas, so that you need to wonder, "Who will cross the seas for us and bring it back to us, so that we may hear it and keep it?" No, the Word is very near to you, it is in your mouth and in your heart for your observance.'

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm Ps 18:8-11

R. The precepts of the Lord give joy to the heart.

The law of the Lord is perfect, it revives the soul.

The rule of the Lord is to be trusted, it gives wisdom to the simple. R.

The precepts of the Lord are right, they gladden the heart.

The command of the Lord is clear, it gives light to the eyes. R.

The fear of the Lord is holy, abiding for ever.

The decrees of the Lord are truth and all of them just. R.

They are more to be desired than gold, than the purest of gold and sweeter are they than honey, than honey from the comb. R.

Second Reading Colossians 1:15-20

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Colossians Christ Jesus is the image of the unseen God and the first-born of all creation, for in him were created all things in heaven and on earth: everything visible and everything invisible, Thrones, Dominations, Sovereignities, Powers—all things were created through him and for him. Before anything was created, he existed, and he holds all things in unity. Now the Church is his body, he is its head.

As he is the Beginning, he was first to be born from the dead, so that he should be first in every way; because God wanted all perfection to be found in him and all things to be reconciled through him and for him, everything in heaven and everything on earth, when he made peace by his death on the cross.

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation cf John 6:63, 68

Alleluia, alleluia!

Your words, Lord, are spirit and life; you have the words of everlasting life. Alleluia!

Gospel Luke 10:25-37

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke

There was a lawyer who, to disconcert Jesus, stood up and said to him, 'Master, what must I do to inherit eternal life?' He said to him, 'What is written in the Law? What do you read there?' He replied, 'You must love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your strength, and with all your mind, and your neighbour as yourself.' 'You have answered right,' said Jesus. 'Do this and life is yours.'

But the man was anxious to justify himself and said to Jesus, 'And who is my neighbour?' Jesus replied, 'A man was once on his way down from Jerusalem to Jericho and fell into the hands of brigands; they took all he had, beat him and then made off, leaving him half dead. Now a priest happened to be travelling down the same road, but when he saw the man, he passed by on the other side. In the same way a Levite who came to the place saw him, and passed by on the other side. But a Samaritan traveller who came upon him was moved with compassion when he saw him. He went up and bandaged his wounds, pouring oil and wine on them. He then lifted him on to his own mount, carried him to the inn and looked after him. Next day, he took out two denarii and handed them to the innkeeper. "Look after him," he said "and on my way back I will make good any extra expense you have." Which of these three, do you think, proved himself a neighbour to the man who fell into the brigands' hands?' 'The one who took pity on him' he replied. Jesus said to him, 'Go, and do the same yourself.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Communion Antiphon

The sparrow finds a home, and the swallow a nest for her young: by your altars, O Lord of hosts, my King and my God. Blessed are they who dwell in your house, for ever singing your praise.
