Dear Parishioners

The feast of the Most Holy Trinity calls our attention to the great mystery of God. One way of entering into this mystery is by contemplating creation, the work of God’s hands. We can look up at the moon and the stars or gaze on a panorama of mountains and valleys and be filled with wonder. Or we can look at a single tiny flower or a newborn infant and have the same sense of awe.

Such feelings engulf the author of today’s responsorial psalm. What is most marvellous, and indeed most humbling and frightening, for the psalmist is the exalted place God has given to humans in the order of creation. We have been given a share in God’s royal authority over creation. Our God is never a hoarder of power but One who freely delegates this power to us.

It is a great honour and an awesome responsibility to have been entrusted by God with the care of the earth. ‘Sheep and cattle, yes even the wild beasts, birds of the air and fish’ have all been entrusted to our stewardship. We can use our royal role to be promoters of life or agents of death.

This psalm reminds us that praise of God does not mean leaving everything to God. We cannot spend all our time on our knees exclaiming, ‘O Lord, our God, how wonderful you are!’ At the end of every Eucharist we are sent out to love and praise the Lord by caring for our fellow human beings and for all of creation. Refreshed by the liturgy, we are called to roll up our sleeves and take up our task.

May God bless you.

menALIVE is a National Catholic Ministry to Men which was founded out of a response to a great need in the hearts and lives of men, and a great need in the life of the Catholic Church.

The purpose of menALIVE is to bring men together, to renew their faith in God and to encourage them to become an active force within the Church.

Through a variety of events and programs, men are invited to explore what God would want for their lives and how they might come to experience the fullness of life that God wants for us all.

The Word

Sunday 12 June 2022, The Most Holy Trinity

First Reading

From the book of Proverbs Prv 8:22-31

Wisdom was born before the earth was made.
The Wisdom of God cries aloud:
The Lord created me when his purpose first unfolded, before the oldest of his works.
From everlasting I was firmly set,
from the beginning, before earth came into being.
The deep was not, when I was born,
there were no springs to gush with water.
Before the mountains were settled,
before the hills, I came to birth;
before he made the earth, the countryside,
or the first grains of the world's dust.
When he fixed the heavens firm, I was there,
when he drew a ring on the surface of the deep,
when he thickened the clouds above,
when he fixed fast the springs of the deep,
when he assigned the sea its boundaries
– and the waters will not invade the shore –
when he laid down the foundations of the earth,
I was by his side, a master craftsman,
delighting him day after day,
ever at play in his presence,
at play everywhere in his world,
delighting to be with the sons of men.
The Word of the Lord.

Responsorial Psalm Ps 8:4-9. R. v.2

(R.) O Lord, our God, how wonderful your name in all the earth!

1. When I see the heavens, the work of your hands, the moon and the stars which you arranged, that is man that you should keep him in mind, mortal man that you care for him? (R.)
2. Yet you have made him little less than a god; with glory and honour you crowned him, gave him power over the works of your hand, put all things under his feet. (R.)
3. All of them, sheep and cattle, yes, even the savage beasts, birds of the air, and fish that make their way through the waters. (R.)

Second Reading

From the letter of St Paul to the Romans Rom 5:1-5

To God through Christ in the love which is poured out through the Spirit.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, by faith we are judged righteous and at peace with God, since it is by faith and through Jesus that we have entered this state of grace in which we can boast about looking forward to God's glory. But that is not all we can boast about; we can boast about our sufferings. These sufferings bring patience, as we know, and patience brings perseverance, and perseverance brings hope, and this hope is not deceptive, because the love of God has been poured into our hearts by the Holy Spirit which has been given us.
The Word of the Lord.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!

Glory to the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit:
to God who is, who was, and who is to come.
Alleluia!

Gospel

From the holy Gospel according to John Gospel
Jn 16:12-15

Whatever the Father has is mine. The Spirit will receive what I give and tell you about it.

Jesus said to his disciples:

'I still have many things to say to you but they would be too much for you now. But when the Spirit of truth comes he will lead you to the complete truth, since he will not be speaking as from himself but will say only what he has learnt; and he will tell you of the things to come. He will glorify me, since all he tells you will be taken from what is mine. Everything the Father has is mine; that is why I said: All he tells you will be taken from what is mine.'
The Gospel of the Lord.
