Dear parishioners and visitors to the Parish,

At the onset of his mission, Jesus calls his first set of disciples. Nothing had prepared Andrew, Simon, James and John for the task of becoming 'fishers of men.' Their training was to catch fish and trade their catch with fish vendors. But they let themselves be won over by Jesus' magnetic presence. They leave behind their boats, their father Zebedee (in the case of James and John), and follow Jesus in the adventure of preaching the Good News of the Kingdom. At times they would be slow in understanding what the Kingdom of heaven entails. But Jesus is a patient teacher, and he teaches through unforgettable stories called parables. Most of all, he teaches through by example: being merciful and caring to the least and the last. Speaking of the call of the first disciples, Pope Francis shares: 'There are different ways of carrying out the plan that God has for each of us, which is always a plan of love... And the greatest joy for every believer is to respond to this call, to offer all at the service of God and their brothers and sisters'. Where do you feel the Lord is calling you at this stage of your life? Do you have the openness of the first disciples of Jesus?

May God bless you,

Fr Greg

Alpha Hospitality Team Could This Be You?

Alpha is a place where people explore faith and feel truly welcomed—and hospitality makes that possible.

We're looking to grow our Alpha Hospitality Team and would love your help in one (or more) of these ways:

- ✓ Serve – welcome guests and serve food on Wednesday nights
- ✓ Cook – prepare a simple meal (may be reimbursed)
- ✓ Cook & Serve – for those who want to be a part of it all.

You don't need to enjoy cooking—many helpers simply serve. We have two servers each Wednesday, and as the team grows, the commitment becomes lighter.

If you've done Alpha before or have helped in the past and are looking for a meaningful way to serve, this could be for you.

When: Wednesdays (5:30-8:30pm) from 11 February to 6 May 2026

Commitment: As little as 1-2 nights for the whole term

By serving in hospitality, you are serving the Lord and supporting people on their faith journey—which has an eternal impact.

If you're interested or would like to know more, please get in touch with Jen in the office or register your interest in the foyer of the church. We'd love to have you be part of this beautiful ministry, serving the Lord.

WHY WE DO The Things We Do

WHY DO WE ANOINT PEOPLE?

The practice of anointing with oil goes back to ancient times. In the Old Testament it was used in the consecration of priests and kings. The healing and fragrant properties of the oil made it an appropriate symbol of the strength of God and the sweetness of a virtuous life. The Christian Church adopted this ritual to indicate the imparting of the Holy Spirit. Today we anoint the sick and those in danger of death to invoke God's healing and comforting presence. We also anoint people in the sacraments of baptism, confirmation and holy orders as a sign of their consecration to Christ through the transforming power of the Spirit.

Preparing for Lent

As we draw closer to the holy season of Lent and the celebration of Ash Wednesday, we kindly invite all parishioners to return any blessed palms from previous years.

These palms will be reverently used in the preparation of ashes for Ash Wednesday.

Thank you for your care and cooperation as we prepare together for this sacred season of prayer and renewal.

CHILDREN

ALL WELCOME

Ever thought about connecting your faith with your inner child?

We're calling all parents, grandparents, teachers, and anyone with a heart for children to join our wonderful Children's Liturgy Ministry!

COME AND JOIN OUR CHILDREN'S LITURGY TEAM!

Why We Need You!

Our Children's Liturgy has been running for over a couple of years now and continues to grow – which is such a blessing!

As our group expands, we need more volunteers so we can create two liturgy groups and continue offering a welcoming space for our parish children to learn about God's love.

Why You'll Love It!

By volunteering, you'll:

- Nurture the faith of our parish children
- Deepen your own relationship with God
- Have fun and connect with other families
- Discover your inner child again!
- No experience is needed – all resources, support, and training are provided.
- Each member needs a WWCC - we can help with this
- Only once a month is required, if that is all you can do.

Interested?

We'd love to chat with you!

Please contact: Brigitte Karle on 0452 531 710
or Jennifer Poon on 0403 162 598

Come grow with us in faith, joy, and community.

We love hearing the sounds of children at Mass

"The sound of children is the sound of life in our church."

If you're looking for a parish that truly welcomes young families and encourages parents to bring their little ones to be part of our Sunday celebration, we would be delighted to have you join us.

Come visit us at Corpus Christi on Sundays at 10 am Family Mass. You are always welcome.

Position Vacant – Pymble Parish Catechist Coordinator Casual Position

Our Parish is looking for a new Catechist Coordinator. The primary purpose of the Catechist Coordinator (CC) is to lead and support the catechists of the Pymble Parish (Parish) who provide Special Religious Education (SRE) to the Catholic Students in State Schools within the Parish.

To achieve this, the CC works under the direction of the Parish Priest and with the Parish team to lead the Catechist program and provide coordinated support services to enhance the SRE ministry within the Parish. If you are interested in supporting the faith development of children in the public schools in our Parish, please contact the Parish Office for a copy of the Position Description. The appointment is subject to a satisfactory Working with Children Check and National Police Check.

To apply, please email your current CV and cover letter to claudia@pymblecatholicparish.org.au by 6 February 2026. Applications will be reviewed as they are received, and the closing date may be adjusted if a suitable candidate is identified.

Daily Prayer for Vocations

Heavenly Father, we praise You for Your goodness and thank You for Your gifts. Help us respond to and live out our mission in the Church. Assist all Your people to know their vocation in life and help them to prepare for it. Call many to be priests, deacons and consecrated men and women for Your greater glory, and for the service of Your people. Give those whom You call the grace to respond generously and to persevere faithfully. We ask this through Christ Our Lord. Amen

The Word

Sunday 25th January 2026: Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Collect

Almighty ever-living God, direct our actions according to your good pleasure, that in the name of your beloved Son we may be abound in good works. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

First Reading

From the prophet Isaiah 8:23 – 9:3

In the Galilean country, the people have seen a great light.

In days past the Lord humbled the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, but in days to come he will confer glory on the Way of the Sea on the far side of Jordan, province of the nations.

The people that walked in darkness
has seen a great light;
on those who live in a land of deep shadow
a light has shone.

You have made their gladness greater,
you have made their joy increase,
they rejoice in your presence
as men rejoice at harvest time,
as men are happy when they are dividing the spoils.
For the yoke that was weighing on him,
the bar across his shoulders,
the rod of his oppressor,
these you break as on the day of Midian.

The Word of the Lord.

Responsorial Psalm Ps 26:1. 4. 13-14. R. v.1
(R.) The Lord is my light and my salvation.

1. The Lord is my light and my help;
whom shall I fear?
The Lord is the stronghold of my life;
Before whom shall I shrink? (R.)
2. There is one thing I ask of the Lord,
for this I long,
to live in the house of the Lord,
all the days of my life,
to savour the sweetness of the Lord,
to behold his temple. (R.)
3. I am sure I shall see the Lord's goodness
in the land of the living.
Hope in him, hold firm and take heart.
Hope in the Lord! (R.)

Second Reading

From the first letter of St Paul to the Corinthians
1:10-13, 17

I appeal to you, my brothers and sisters, make up the differences between you.

I appeal to you, brothers, for the sake of our Lord Jesus Christ, to make up the differences between you, and instead of disagreeing among yourselves, to be united again in your belief and practice. From what Chloe's people have been telling me, my dear brothers, it is clear that there are serious differences among you. What I mean are all these slogans that you have, like: 'I am for Paul', 'I am for Apollos', 'I am for Cephas', 'I am for Christ'. Has Christ been parcelled out?

Was it Paul that was crucified for you? Were you baptised in the name of Paul?

For Christ did not send me to baptise, but to preach the Good News, and not to preach that in the terms of philosophy in which the crucifixion of Christ cannot be expressed.

The Word of the Lord.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!
Jesus preached the Good News of the kingdom
and healed all who were sick.
Alleluia!

Gospel

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew 4:12-23

Hearing that John had been arrested Jesus went back to Galilee, and leaving Nazareth he went and settled in Capernaum, a lakeside town on the borders of Zebulun and Naphtali. In this way the prophecy of Isaiah was to be fulfilled:

Land of Zebulun! Land of Naphtali! Way of the sea on the far side of Jordan, Galilee of the nations! The people that lived in darkness has seen a great light; on those who dwell in the land and shadow of death a light has dawned.

From that moment on Jesus began his preaching with the message, 'Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is close at hand.'

The Gospel of the Lord
