(First Reading)

Dear Parishioners,

Jesus uses a number of vigorous verbs in this Gospel to describe the behaviour he wants to see in us as we await his coming: we are to 'be alert', to be 'awake'. These are all applied to our ordinary existence. Yes, the daily round that doesn't seem important in the eyes of the world is precious in the eyes of God as it is in daily life that the kingdom of God is unfolding for us. If we look with the eyes of faith we will find a meaning in our ordinary activities that has eternal significance. The smallest actions of love charm the heart of God and allows us to make this world a better place leading to everlasting life in the next. We do not drift into this kingdom or find ourselves within it by default. God wants us to actively and effectively participate in making his kingdom a reality in our world.

It takes great daily courage to take these words to heart but when we do our lives, our often very humble lives, attain a meaning and depth that cannot come from human sources. Judgement will be made, not upon what presentation we may be able to drum up at the lastminute, but rather on what we do day-by-day when no-one is around. When we trust the plan that God has for our lives, the grace of the Spirit opens our eyes to infinite vistas in the confined spaces of our daily life.

May God bless you.

Advent & Christmas Program Begins this Week! Get Your Gift Media Bundle in the Foyer

Start this Advent season off right and pick up your gift bundle after all Masses this weekend! Music from The Vigil Project, reflections by Fr. Dave Pivonka TOR, and a devotional companion booklet are all part of the plan to help you celebrate these seasons in a deeper way. Bundles are available in hardcopy or digital formats, and ushers will be outside the Foyer of the Church to give your gift to you. Have a blessed start to Advent as we wait in joyful hope for the coming of our Saviour this Christmas!

This program may be done one of three ways: Individually, with a group of friends in your home or in small groups done through the parish.

Please take 1 CD and Devotional per family. Each CD has 5 downloads available including a soft copy of the devotional. Please indicate whether you plan to use your bundle individually, in a home setting or in small groups in the parish.

This is a free gift to you from the parish. However, if you would like to partner with us financially on this beautiful Advent journey, we have provided a donation box where you collect your bundle from.

If you would like to join a small group, these are the following options and days:

The Word

Sunday 29 November 2020: First Sunday of Advent

First Reading

A reading from the prophet Isaiah Is 63:16-17; 64:1. 3-8

Oh that you would tear the heavens apart and come down.

You, Lord, yourself are our Father, Our Redeemer is your ancient name. Why, Lord, leave us to stray from your ways and harden our hearts against fearing you? Return, for the sake of your servants, the tribes of your inheritance. Oh, that you would tear the heavens open and come down – at your Presence the mountains would melt. No ear has heard, no eye has seen any god but you act like this for those who trust him. You guide those who act with integrity and keep your ways in mind. You were angry when we were sinners; we had long been rebels against you. We were all like men unclean, all that integrity of ours like filthy clothing. We have all withered like leaves and our sins blew us away like the wind. No one invoked your name or roused himself to catch hold of you. For you hid your face from us and gave us up to the power of our sins. And yet, Lord, you are our Father; we the clay, you the potter, we are all the work of your hand.
The Word of the Lord.

Responsorial Psalm Ps 79:2-3. 15-16. 18-19
R. v.4

(R.) Lord, make us turn to you, let us see your face and we shall be saved.

1. O shepherd of Israel, hear us, shine forth from your cherubim throne. O Lord, rouse up your might, O Lord, come to our help. (R.)
2. God of hosts, turn again, we implore, look down from heaven and see. Visit this vine and protect it, the vine your right hand has planted. (R.)
3. May your hand be on the man you have chosen, the man you have given your strength. And we shall never forsake you again: give us life that we may call upon your name. (R.)

Second Reading

A reading from first letter of St Paul to the Corinthians 1 Cor 1:3-9

The revelation we looked for, Christ Jesus our Lord.
May God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ send you grace and peace.

I never stop thanking God for all the graces you have received through Jesus Christ. I thank him that you have been enriched in so many ways, especially in your teachers and preachers; the witness to Christ has indeed been strong among you so that you will not be without any of the gifts of the Spirit while you are waiting for our Lord Jesus Christ to be revealed; and he will keep you steady and without blame until the last day, the day of our Lord Jesus Christ, because God by calling you has joined you to his Son, Jesus Christ; and God is faithful.
The Word of the Lord.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!

Lord, show us your mercy and love,
and grant us your salvation.
Alleluia!

Gospel

From the holy Gospel according to Mark Mk 13:33-37

Stay awake! You never know when the Lord will come.

Jesus said to his disciples: 'Be on your guard, stay awake, because you never know when the time will come. It is like a man travelling abroad: he has gone from home, and left his servants in charge, each with his own task; and he has told the doorkeeper to stay awake. So stay awake, because you do not know when the master of the house is coming, evening, midnight, cockcrow, dawn; if he comes unexpectedly, he must not find you asleep. And what I say to you I say to all: Stay awake!'
The Gospel of the Lord.
